SALESON

Mow that football through, huddles are found being made by the annual staff over Acalanes' first year book. This first yearbook is really going MA to be a "wow". It is going to have pictures of everyone. Both formal i (you know, those caught | The destructive hand of when you're not looking.) | sickness has struck again It will have a super blue and white cover and forty | The seige was pretty bad pages crammed full. There will be pictures of all believed to be almost as classes and their officers | wide spread as the epipictures of sports and demic of 1918, but not clubs and snaps woven in | near as fatal. -and out all through. "The Aklan" is being so arranged that you will never be bored with it so be sure and get wours!!

FIRST ANNUAL CAKESALE SUCCESSEUL

wishes to express its appreciation for the students fine cooperation in the 1st annual cake sale. The sale was a gigantic success, clearing $24.30.

The boys especially want to thank the students who brought cakes.

Among the cake winners were Mr. Warburton, Coach Mattson and Mr. Miller, the janitor.

I'XMAS CAROL'BIG SUCCESS;

IDAVE LAWRENCE STARS

Lights! Action! Camera! Haven't you heard? The Acalanes production of "The Christmas Carol" was viewed is llast night by students, critics, and faculty. The trolop may be Hollywood bound, yet.

Scrooge gave the kids in the front row night-mares, and made the sophisticated swallow their gum. Tiny Tim

Several schools in surrounding communities were closed but Acalanes came through without having to close. More than 250 were out with it during the 11 st month. There were once 130 out the same day. Among the unfortunate ones, was Mr. Warburton. The Boys' Federation I'm sure he could give you la pretty good idea of what lit was like.

As may be expected, all the absentees didn't have the flu as they represented, but they were caught lany way. Just what is worse, the truant officer or the flu?

land beaming, and the entire cast supported their Lawrence wonderfully. The stage crew did some isnapov scene shifting and the metamorphis of the, lire place - from grey marble to red brick was really worthy of praise. Costumes and grease paint, lighting effects, and props, promoters and the lead, major and minor actfors were jumbled behind the curtain, but presented a mask of efficiency and professionalism to the laudience and aroused the lwatchers to a high pitch of excitement over the first Acalanes premiere of a Christmas Carol.

IPARENTS CEUB DANCERRINAY

Next Friday the Acalanes Parents Club will hold a dance in the gym. This is the dance which was postponed from the 7th. The orchestra will be that of Dob Osborne of Port Chilengo, better known as Boblby Ozz.

Bobby has quite a talented outfit composed of local misicians. Ed Robinson of fealanes plays Ithe piano in Ozzis band. Amoung others he has Bob Enos who toots a mean truncet, Paul Meier, trombone player, Dick Hinkson fon the druns and warren Hiviland and Lydia Diaz, a couple of fine vocalists.
